Therma~Phase™ Ultra is a unique pressure relieving material, infused with patented phase~change crystals, plus copper and precious metal microbeads.

The phase-change crystals work by constantly absorbing and releasing body heat to maintain the ideal sleep surface temperature.

The infusion of copper and precious metal microbeads work as a super~fast heat conductor, quickly moving heat to and from the mattress surface as required.

Kaymed reserves the right to change specifications without notice. Divan and mattress colours shown are for illustrative purposes only.
